

Sebastian Androne-Nakanishi

Biography (short)

Sebastian Androne-Nakanishi is an acclaimed composer whose work seamlessly bridges contemporary concert music with multimedia soundtracks. Educated across Romania, the UK, and France, he holds a PhD from the National University of Music in Bucharest and a Master's degree in Film, Theatre, and Media Composition from the Zürcher Hochschule der Künste. Renowned for his emotive and inventive compositions, Sebastian has earned significant accolades including the "Golden Eye" at the Zurich Film Festival and the Composer Award at the International Classical Music Awards. His music has been performed internationally by top ensembles and orchestras, demonstrating his broad appeal and versatility. A committed educator and mentor, Sebastian continues to influence the next generation of composers through both teaching and his diverse body of work.

